Membership Classifications

Regular Member – Regular membership shall be individual and limited to executive staff members who represent national, regional, state, or local trade or professional associations of educational, philanthropic, technical, or similar-type organizations, and chambers of commerce and membership controlled tourist and convention bureaus, who devote a substantial portion of their working time to association duties. (An employed regular member who is seeking employment in association management may continue to hold regular membership for one additional year past the current membership year for which dues payment has been made.) Annual membership investment: $300

Associate Member – Associate membership shall be available to firms whose interests are allied to the field of association management as determined by the Board. No firm shall hold more than five memberships. Policies governing the participation of Associate Members in the West Virginia Society of Association Executives shall be determined by the Board of Directors. Annual membership investment: $400

Life Member – A Regular Member who has retired from full-time gainful employment in association management and who has been a member of this Society for ten (10) years or more may, upon written application to and by unanimous vote of the Board of Directors be elected Life Member without further payment of dues.

Note: All memberships include registration for eight monthly luncheons, excluding annual conference. Workshops and educational sessions immediately prior/after the monthly luncheons are not included.
